Michel Lauzière International Master of Comedy and Laughter

After a ten year career as the straight man in a comedy duo, Michel Lauzière launched his solo career in 1988 and soon made his mark on the international stage. His creative performances featuring impressive musical and visual effects earned him appearances on major T.V. shows. His very first appearance on the national network in Japan was a instant success, attracting ratings of an amazing 60%. In 1990, he was invited to the American Comedy Awards where he was an instant hit! Since then, Lauzière performs on many major networks including Showtime, Comedy Central and HBO.

Michel Lauzière has been growing in popularity ever since and has become one of the most sought after Canadian artists, performing in as many as 45 countries. Moreover, he played the feature role in many television commercials for such multinationals as Planters, Southern Gas, Molson O'Keefe Brewery and the Société Loto Québec, just to name a few.

Michel Lauzière's immense talent is without boundaries. Master of his art, this top performer continues to capture a public of all ages throughout the world. Everyone is caught under his comedic spell.

ONE-MAN BAND
Rock along with Michel as his "one-man band" delivers hits such as We Will Rock You and I Love Rock'n'Roll.

THE BALLOON MAN
Lauzière's original signature number created in the 80's has earned him international recognition. Astonished crowds watch as he enters the balloon choreographed to the theme from 2001: A Space Odyssey.

The Unique Art of Michel Lauzière

Michel Lauzière is a man of many talents. He is a visual humorist, a fantasy artist, a musician and above all, he is a creative performer who gains personal satisfaction in capturing his public's affection. On stage, Lauzière is a master in grasping the audience's attention and drawing them into his world of the unusual. With his incredible talent and imagination, he can make music out of anything.

Michel Lauzière speaks many languages and is able to present his shows in any combination of English, French, German, Spanish or Italian.
