"The combination keynote presentation and Comedic Hypnosis Show was uplifting, enlightening and entertaining!! Your ability to connect with a variety of personalities is a huge asset to any group who is looking for a combination of an unforgettable keynote presentation and evening of entertainment. I know our group will be talking about it for years to come!! Amazing, unique, one-of-a-kind, believer --- are just some of the words we received back from the attendees."

"As a corporate event with over 1500 employees and guests, it was a mixed crowd of all ages and backgrounds. We were sensitive that the content may not be appreciated by such a diverse group. Wayne captured our room and kept them engaged through the full 1.5 hour performance. Wayne displayed tremendous skill in hypnotizing the volunteers while simultaneously entertaining the audience and keeping them fully involved. We would highly recommend Wayne for anyone."

-- Cindy Lowe, Epcor

"Our office decided to hire Wayne Lee based on a referral from a well-regarded friend of the Fredericton office that had seen his show for the Ducks Unlimited USA group. That performance was in front of about 1000 people and he killed it was the review from the person making the referral. Wayne type of show was not our usual type of performance but our office took a chance and Wayne had them rolling in the aisles for the entire show. Since that first show that we were not sure about its appeal, we have brought him back to our city for a total of 3 shows. Each one seems better than that last and our guests have grown from approx. 400 to nearly 1000 people in the fall of 2013. Wayne is a true performer and artist. I would highly recommend his show for any group."

-- Ian Wilson, Investors Group,
Regional Director Fredericton, NB
